NYU Shanghai invites applications for either a one-year full-time Visiting Assistant Professor of Practice or Visiting Professor of Practice position beginning Fall 2016. The position can be extended for one more year subject to budget approval. We are looking for candidates that have a strong commitment to teaching undergraduates in a liberal arts environment and will teach two courses per semester. Prior teaching experience is highly desirable. PhD preferred; advanced ABDs considered.

The terms of employment in NYU Shanghai include research and compensation similar to US institutions, and include housing subsidies and educational subsidies for children. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the positions are filled. Complete applications include application letter, a curriculum vitae, statements of teaching interests, evidence of teaching effectiveness (which should include at a minimum a complete set of most recent teaching evaluations) and electronic copies of up to three recent relevant research papers. To complete the online process, applicants will be prompted to enter the names and email addresses of at least three referees. Each reference will be contacted to upload his or her reference letter. Please visit our website at http://shanghai.nyu.edu/en/about/work-here/open-positions-faculty for instructions and other information on how to apply. If you have any questions, please e-mail shanghai.socialscience.recruitment@nyu.edu.

About NYU Shanghai:
NYU Shanghai is the newest degree-granting campus within the NYU Global Network University. It is the first Sino-US higher education joint venture to grant a degree that is accredited in the U.S. as well as in China. All teaching is conducted in English. A research university with liberal arts and science at its core, it resides in one of the world's great cities with a vibrant intellectual community. NYU Shanghai recruits scholars who are committed to NYU’s global vision of transformative teaching and innovative research.

New York University has established itself as a Global Network University, a multi-site, organically connected network encompassing key global cities and idea capitals. There are three degree-granting campuses in New York, Shanghai, and Abu Dhabi, and complemented by eleven additional academic centers across five continents. Faculty and students circulate within the network in pursuit of common research interests and cross-cultural, interdisciplinary endeavors, both local and global.
