

TRAINING: Student Research Projects Involving Human Subjects

Planning a survey for your class project?
Interviewing your fellow classmates for your interested research topics?

Did you know ONE MORE STEP IS NEEDED before you can implement your survey or start your interview?

Please join our training workshop to learn the Guidelines for Student Projects Involving Human Subjects.

Who Should Attend:

Students who are considering gathering data from human subjects for their projects.

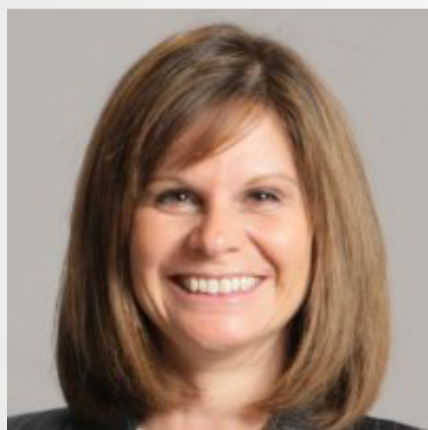

When and Where:

Session I: 4:10pm - 4:50pm, Monday, September 12th, 2016

Session II: 12:15pm - 1:00pm, Wednesday, September 14th, 2016

Venue: Classroom 204, NYU Shanghai | 1555 Century Avenue, Pudong, Shanghai

Pizza will be served!
Please register here.

Speaker: Cheryl Savini, CIP

Cheryl is the Sr. Vice President of HRP Consulting Group, a leading consulting firm focused on human research protection in New York. Cheryl has over 25 years' experience in human research protections. She has been an invited presenter at numerous national and international venues, such as PRIM&R, SRA, and CUNY as well as at human subject conferences in Korea, China, and Singapore.

