OFF-CAMPUS INTERNSHIP REGISTRATION PROCESS

Based on the current Chinese law and regulations, since April 1, 2015, foreign students in China should meet the following requirements BEFORE they can be enrolled in an off-campus internship. The whole process normally takes 14 business days. Failure to do so will be considered as Illegal Employment and will be subject to fines and other disciplinary action from the Chinese government and Exit-Entry Bureau.

Decide the Internship
- Major-related
- UNPAID position (except for allowance)
- Less than 6 months (re-register if longer)
- Only one off-campus internship at one time

Get the CDC Opinion Letter
Email NYUSH CDC at shanghai.careerdevelopment@nyu.edu with subject “Name - Internship Registration” and provide the following information:
1) Your Legal Name (shown on Passport)
2) Your Nationality
3) Your Passport Number
4) Your Internship Start and End Date (Note: You must complete the process before your desired start date)
5) Your Internship Company Registered Chinese Name (English name is not acceptable)*
6) Your Internship Address in Chinese (English address is not acceptable)*
   * If you are not able to type in Chinese, attaching a digital photo copy in an email is also acceptable.

Pick Up the CDC Opinion Letter
This process normally takes 1 business day.

Get the Official Stamp on Company Opinion Letter
Bring the Company Opinion Letter to your employer to get its official company seal and send the digital version back to CDC.

Material Pick-Up
Student Mobility will send you an email when all the documents are ready to be picked up (normally 7 business days). Please bring the CDC Opinion Letter and the Company Opinion Letter when you go to their office (Room 110).

Register Internship at Exit-Entry Bureau
Submit all the documents to the Exit-Entry Bureau in person and get the internship registration memo on your residence permit (normally ready to pick up after 7 business days).
Internship registration fee: 400 RMB in cash
* This step can be skipped if you have previously registered.

NYU Shanghai: Off campus Internship Registration Information

Based on the current Chinese law and regulations, since April 1, 2015, foreign students in China should meet with the following requirements BEFORE they can be enrolled in an off-campus internship. Failure to do these will be considered as Illegal Employment and will be subject to fines and other discipline from Chinese government and Exit-Entry Bureau.

1. The foreign student should be enrolled in a degree or exchange program in one of the schools which have the qualification to recruit foreign students in Shanghai.
2. The foreign student should get study residence permit from Shanghai Exit-Entry Bureau. (To get a study residence permit, the student should study at NYU Shanghai more than 6 months and finish the required physical exam, please check here for the residence permit application instructions.)
3. The student should get an official memo from Exit-Entry Bureau on their residence permit.
4. The student should not have more than one off campus internship at one time.
5. The off campus internship should be UNPAID positions (Except for transportation and meal allowances) and relevant to the student’s majors.
6. The internship period should be less than 6 months. If students have an internship more than 6 months, please re-register every 6 months.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Before you finish all these 4 STEPS, you CAN NOT begin your internship!

Step #1: Get the approval from NYU Shanghai Career Development Center
When you get an off campus internship position, please email NYU Shanghai Career Development Center at shanghai.careerdevelopment@nyu.edu with subject “Name - Internship Registration” to request an internship registration opinion letter. CDC will provide feedback and process CDC Opinion Letter within 1 business day after receiving all requested information.

Note: Student Mobility will upload your information to the Exit-Entry Bureau’s online system for the online approval according to the information you submitted to CDC. All the information should be accurate. Any mistakes will affect your internship registration later. This process takes around 7 business days.

Step #2: Take the Company Opinion Letter to the internship provider to get sealed AND pick up the stamped CDC Opinion Letter from CDC
Bring the Company Opinion Letter to your employer to get its official company seal and send digital version back to Career Development Center.

Note: This step can be done at the same time as Step 1.

Step #3: BE NOTIFIED BY STUDENT MOBILITY (in Office 110) FOR MATERIAL PICK-UP AFTER 7 BUSINESS DAYS
Student Mobility will send you an email when all the documents are ready to be picked up. Please bring the sealed opinion letter from CDC and the company opinion letter when you come.
Note: If you have previously registered another off-campus internship at NYU Shanghai before, and you still have your registered residence permit in your passport, then you don’t need to go through Step#4. Student Mobility will renew your internship information in the Exit-Entry Bureau’s system. You can directly begin your internship.

Step #4: Register your internship at Exit-Entry Bureau in person
You will need to submit all the documents to Exit-Entry Bureau in person and get the internship registration memo on your residence permit. This registration process takes another 7 business days. You can then begin your internship AFTER you receive your passport back and within an internship approval residence permit.

Address of Exit-Entry Bureau:

Exit-Entry Administration Bureau 上海市公安局出入境管理局
1500 Min Sheng Road, Pudong District 浦东新区民生路 1500 号
