

Tenured/Tenure-Track Position in Global Public Health

Position Description

NYU Shanghai is currently inviting applications for an Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor in Global Public Health. The ideal candidate will demonstrate a strong social justice orientation, and advocate for health equity by complementing existing research strengths in migration and health, global mental health, urban health, trauma and adversity, and sexual and reproductive health. The successful candidates will have the opportunity to join a vibrant research community housed in the NYU Shanghai Social Sciences Area and the Center for Global Health Equity. In addition to Global Mental Health and Migrant Health, the third main pillar of the Center is focused on environmental health and climate change. Colleagues with an emphasis on climate change and health would join an active group of scholars who are focused on ecology, climate justice, and the effects of urban and built environment on human health and develop innovative and exciting collaborations with faculty across the social sciences.

Terms of employment at NYU Shanghai are comparable to NYU New York and other U.S. institutions with respect to research start-up funds and compensation, and they include housing subsidies and educational subsidies for children. Faculty may in certain cases have the opportunity to spend time at NYU New York and other sites of the NYU Global Network, engaging in both research and teaching.

Qualifications

We particularly seek applications from candidates who completed a doctorate in public health, epidemiology, or relevant fields who focus on the conduct of interventions, community-based participatory research, implementation science, and digital health, to improve population health. This position is part of a four-line cluster search on the climate-health nexus, broadly construed; the other three positions are in environmental studies, medical anthropology, and psychology. Candidates should be comfortable conducting collaborative research in interdisciplinary teams with scholars from diverse and complementary backgrounds.

Application Instructions

Applicants should submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, statement of research, statement of teaching interests, and at least one writing sample via Interfolio. Additionally, those applying at the rank of assistant or associate professor (without tenure) should enter the names and email addresses of at least three referees. Each referee will be contacted to upload a reference letter through Interfolio.

Applications may be received until October 28, 2024. To apply, follow this link: <http://apply.interfolio.com/155486>. If you have any questions, please email the NYU Shanghai NY Office of Faculty Recruitment: shanghai.faculty.recruitment@nyu.edu.

About NYU Shanghai

NYU Shanghai is the third degree-granting campus within New York University's Global Network.
