

SOPHOMORE CHECKLIST FALL 2019

Global Week (Sept.)

- ☐ Attend the General Study Away Info Session
- ☐ Attend the Mobility Info Session
- ☐ Attend at least one major-specific info session that aligns with your academic interests:

- ☐ Identify three study away sites that match your academic/career/personal interests

Major Exploration (Oct.)

- ☐ Attend the Designing Your Academic Pathway workshop
- ☐ Attend at least two major info sessions if you are undecided:

Spring Registration (Nov.)

- ☐ Review your Degree Progress Report in Albert; review and revise your four-year plan
- ☐ Develop a detailed course plan for the spring semester
- ☐ Optional: declare your major by Nov. 4, 2019
- ☐ Meet with your advisor before course registration (required)

Academic Resources

- ☐ Academic Resource Center (ARC) workshops
- ☐ Academic Resource Center (ARC) one-on-one appointments
- ☐ Library workshops

Building Your Academic Community

- ☐ Attend faculty office-hours
- ☐ Explore research opportunities; attend the Research Expo and Poster Competition
- ☐ Attend co-curricular and/or extracurricular events
- ☐ Explore Community Engagement Learning Opportunities
- ☐ Explore internship opportunities and resources through the Career Development Center
- ☐ Build a resume and schedule a one-on-one consultation with the Career Development Center

Tools and Resources

- Albert Student Center and Albert Help
- Academic Bulletin 2018-2019
- Academic Calendar 2019-2020
- Majors and Minors website
- Academic Advising website
- Registration Services website

All links are clickable!

U.S. News and World Report Questions to Ask Before Picking a Major

- Why do I want this major?
- Do I know enough about this major?
- What are the requirements for this major?
- Is this the right—and only—major for my career path?
- Am I good at this major?

See full article here: <https://www.usnews.com/education/blogs/professors-guide/2009/12/16/10-questions-to-ask-before-picking-a-major>